Smooth.

Robert Harborborn Sherard, magazine writer and grandson of the poet, Wadsworth, on his recent American visit gave a dinner at the Plaza to a large number of magazine editors.

Mr. Sherard was at his best at this dinner. In magazine circles his "mots" are still being quoted with laughter. One not concerned the wine, a very rich and nutty fruit port which was served in English fashion, with the fruit and nuts at the dinner's end. All praised this wine. As for Mr. Sherard, rolling it upon his tongue, then swallowing it with closed eyes, he cried, ecstatically:

"It slips down like an angel in a pair of velvet trousers!"

A Pertinent Question.

A noted clergyman was in his study writing when his five-year-old daughter walked in and asked:

"What are you writing, papa?"

"I am writing a sermon, daughter."

"How do you know what to write, papa?"

"God tells me what to write, daughter."

After watching her father a few minutes the little girl said:

"Papa, if God tells you what to write why do you scratch some of it out?"—San Francisco Chronicle.

Doubtful Statistics.

Maudie—"Pa, will our new mamma go mad after a while?"

Father—"What a question! Why did you think of such a thing?"

Maudie—"Well, I heard her tell the cook that she got badly bitten when she married you."

Quilts.

A little girl was in the habit of telling awful "stretchers." Her aunt told her she could never believe her; and, to warn her, related the tale of the boy who called "Wolf, wolf!" and how the wolf really did come one day and ate up all the sheep.

"Ate the sheep?" asked the child.

"Yes."

"All of them?"

"Well," said the little one, "I don't believe you, and you don't believe me. So there!"—Harper's Magazine.

He Was Particular.

Mrs. Myles—"Who is that man throwing that kiss to?"

Mrs. Styles—"It must be you, dear. He wouldn't be throwing me a kiss."

Mrs. Myles—"Why not?"

Mrs. Styles—"Because it's my husband."—Yonkers Statesman.

Looking Way Ahead.

"Jones Always seems to be looking into the future."

"Yes. He bought a house on easy terms and a piano on the installment plan."

WRECKED ON REEF

ALASKAN STEAMER A TOTAL LOSS, BUT PASSENGERS REACH SHORE.

Six Members of Crew Perish in Attempt to Obtain Relief for Passengers Who Are Picked Up by Passing Ship.

Seattle.—A cable dispatch from Seward, Alaska, says: The Alaska Steamship company's steamship Farallon is a total wreck on a reef near Iliamna bay, and six members of her crew are believed to have perished in an attempt to obtain relief for the passengers. The passengers and members of the crew arrived here Sunday aboard the steamship Victoria, by which they were rescued February 3, after spending nearly a month encamped in weather frequently 40 degrees below zero.

The Farallon ran to her doom on January 5, during a blinding snowstorm. The passengers and crew managed to get ashore and went into camp, some supplies and clothing being taken ashore.

On January 7 the second mate and five sailors started in a small boat for Kodiak, where they expected to connect with one of the other vessels of the Alaska Steamship company. Since then these men have not been heard from, and there is practically no hope that they are alive.

ONE MAN ESCAPED.

Explosion in Mine Resulted in Death of Eleven.

Indiana, Pa.—Ten Hungarians and one American met death in a gas explosion Saturday in the numerous stopes of the Furnace mine of the Jefferson & Clearfield Coal company. The explosion occurred in the heading where twelve men were working. One of these, Andrew J. Rarzer, escaped by crawling a quarter of a mile on his stomach to evade the noxious gases.

One hundred and ten men working in the same stope escaped through other headings, although they were held back for ten hours by the black damp, until a rescue party reached them.

Expects to Scale Mt. McKinley in Balloon.

St. Louis, Mo.—Captain John Berry, aeronaut of many flights, is ready to balloon his way to the crest of Mount McKinley in Alaska, in search of the records Dr. Frederick A. Cook states he placed there. Berry hopes to settle once and for all the question of whether Cook ever scaled the highest mountain on the continent, or "bust" in the attempt. Captain Berry says that the venture will cost him $50,000. A St. Louisian will accompany him. Pictures will be taken as primary evidence of the trip.

After Grafting Officials.

Chicago.—Four true bills, charging city hall officials with conspiracy in connection with the $45,000 "shale rock" scandal, were returned by the county grand jury Saturday. The men indicted were: John Ericson, city engineer; Michael H. McGovern, contractor; Paul Redleske, former deputy commissioner of public works; Ralph A. Bonnell, former assistant city engineer.

Marines That Cannot Swim.

Washington.—Attention is directed in an official report by Rear Admiral Schroeder, in command of the Atlantic fleet, now engaged in practice maneuvers in Guantanamo bay, Cuba, to the remarkable fact that more than 2,500 men in the fleet cannot swim. In a brief report of the fleet's operations in the last week, the commander says instructions were held for the men who are at home on the water.

Child Died in Her Arms.

Pueblo, Colo.—Crazed by the discovery that her three-year-old daughter was dead in her arms, Mrs. Prantz White, wife of a rancher of Fillmore, Cal., tried to throw herself from the car window on the Denver & Rio Grande California limited train as it was coming into Pueblo. Mrs. White, accompanied by her three children, was returning home from a visit to her mother at Camargo, Ill. She was holding her little daughter in her arms, and, stooping over to kiss the child, discovered she was dead.

Charged With Brutal Murder.

Cincinnati, O.—That Jesse Van Zandt killed his wife and that he choked and tied her before placing her on the cooking stove in their home here is the belief of the Cincinnati police, who say his act was due to a desire to wed Miss Agnes Berry. They say that they already have sufficient evidence to convict him, even though it is but circumstantial. Van Zandt and his wife are said to have quarreled over the pending divorce proceedings. His wife asserted that he was madly in love with Miss Berry and wished to marry her.

This Contractor got results. He knew how to feed his men. Some years ago a contractor building a railroad in a warm climate was troubled a great deal by sickness among the laborers.

He turned his attention at once to their food and found that they were getting full rations of meat and were drinking water from a stream near by. He issued orders to cut down the amount of meat and to increase greatly the quantity of Quaker Oats fed to the men.

He also boiled Quaker Oats and mixed the thin oatmeal water with their drinking water. Almost instantly all signs of stomach disorders passed and his men showed a decided improvement in strength and spirits.

This contractor had experience that taught him the great value of good oatmeal. 53

Why His Mother Mourned.

William M. Fogarty has a story about a good old Irish woman whose son was about to start for a trip around the world.

She had watched him prosper with pride. To her he was a great man. In her fond vision she could see all sorts of terrible tidings coming to him but she held her peace until he had started for the journey. Then she began to cry. A neighbor tried to console her, but to no avail.

"I'm afraid he hasn't the money to get back," said the mother, weeping. "He's got the money to go round the world all right, but how will he ever get back?"—Indianapolis Star.

An Exploded Theory.

"Do you believe there is anything in mental suggestion?"

"Not a thing."

"Don't you think it is possible if one person keeps his mind steadily fixed on a certain thing which he wishes another to do that the other will be influenced so that he will eventually do it?"

"No, I don't believe in the theory at all. I've been wishing for a week that you'd pay me what you owe me without making it necessary for me to ask you for it."—Sunday Magazine of the Cleveland Leader.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Alabastine

The Sanitary Wall Coating

is a powder made from pure native alabaster. It comes in all sorts of rich, soft, velvety shades that enable you, at small cost, to decorate your walls in the same style as the handsome city homes.

Alabastine adheres to the wall of its own cementing qualities. It needs no dirty glue or paste as with kalsomine or wall paper. Anyone can decorate with Alabastine—you just mix it with cold water and apply with a flat wall brush. Simple directions printed on every package. In redecorating, just put a new coat over the old. That saves a lot of work, trouble and money.

Why?

Because Alabastine is better and much cheaper than wall paper—does not harbor insects nor disease germs like wall paper.

Because Alabastine is far better than any kind of Kalsomine—kalsomine rubs off and flakes off. Alabastine does not.

Because Alabastine is clean, stylish, costs little and is easy to put on.
